

Name:

Date:

Change 'f' to 'v'

For words ending in 'f' change the 'f' to 'v' then add 'es' to make the plural.

Write the plural for each word:

one calf: many calves

one wolf: many _____

one leaf: many _____

one half: many _____

one loaf: many _____

one thief: many _____

Replace each underlined word with its opposite:

The wolves are energetic (_____).

The loaves are fresh (_____).

The tree has small (_____) leaves .

The thieves ran quickly (_____).

Wolves are gentle (_____) animals.

Place the two halves apart (_____).

Choose the best word from the list for each sentence:

All the _____ fell from the tree.

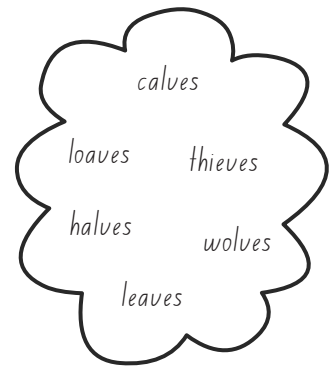

The _____ chased the cow around the farm.

The apple was cut into two _____.

The baker sold eight _____ of bread.

The police took the _____ back to the station.

The pack of _____ howled all night.

Collective Nouns – collective nouns are used to refer to a group of people or things. E.g. A gaggle of geese.

Write the collective noun for each of the following:

swarm brood team pack school flock pride colony

A pack of wolves.

A _____ of chickens.

A _____ of ants.

A _____ of fish.

A _____ of bees.

A _____ of horses.

A _____ of birds.

A _____ of lions.