Describing Elephants

Describing Elephants

Using Adjectives

Adjectives are describing words.

They are used with nouns (names of things) to give us a picture in our mind of that thing.
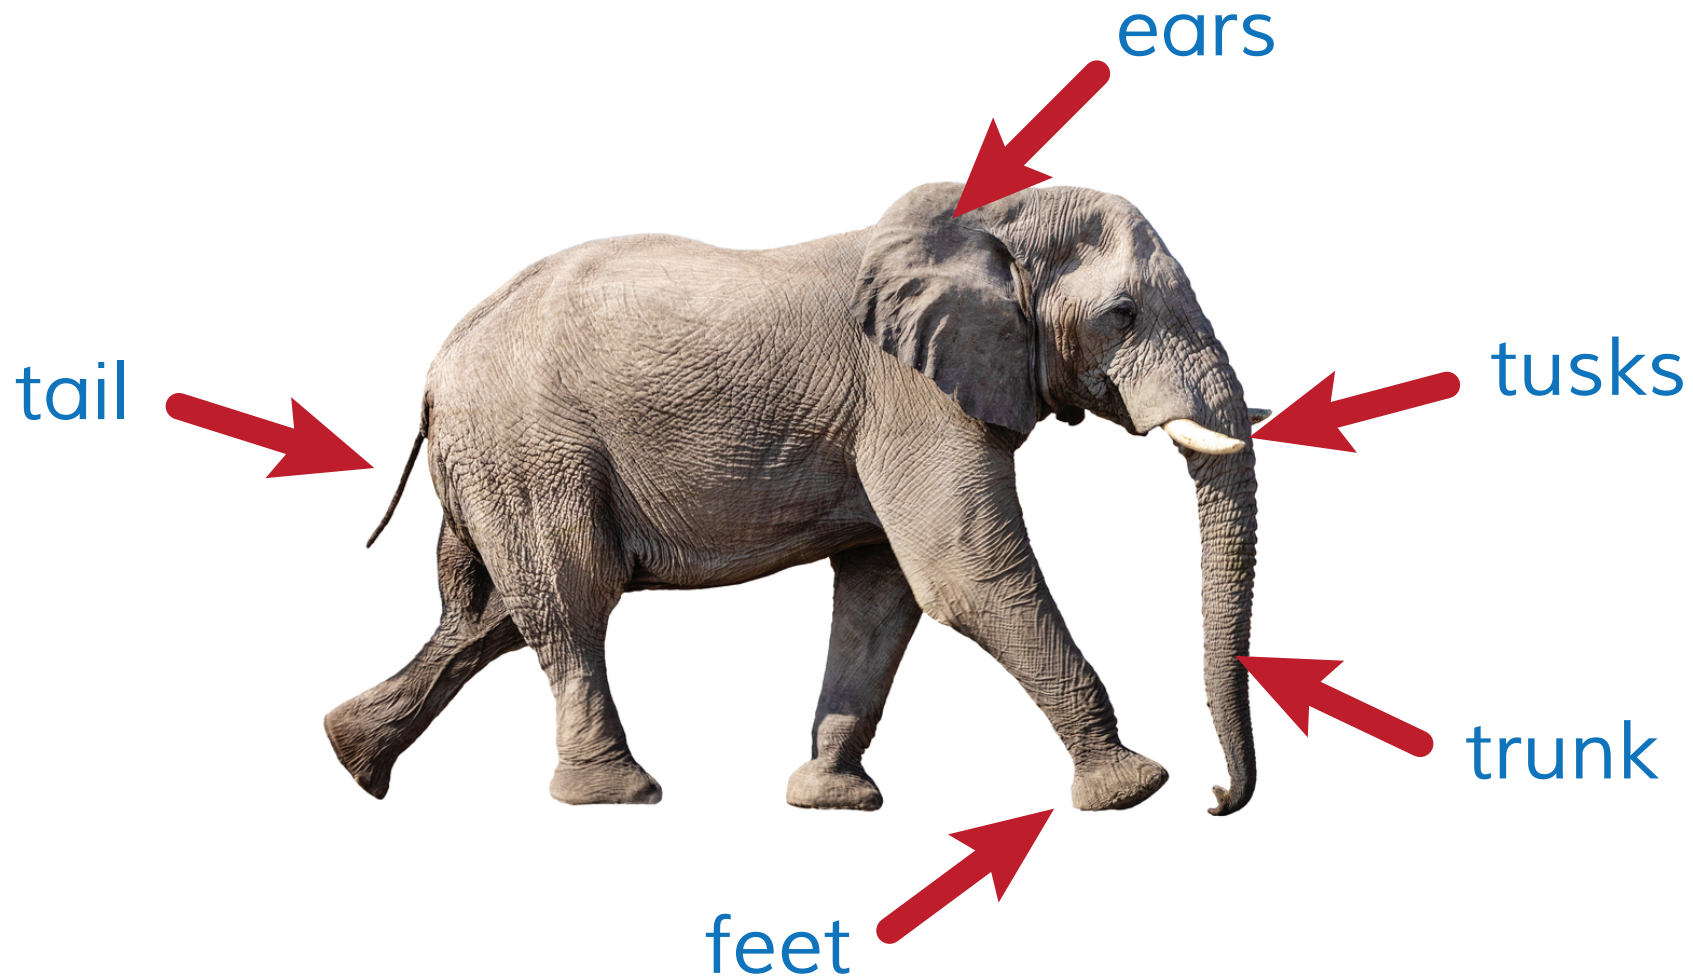

For example:

An elephant has wrinkly skin.

The adjective describes skin (the noun).

Using Adjectives

What adjectives could you use to describe the parts of this elephant's body?

ears

tusks

tail

trunk

feet

Studyladder

Adjectives Word Bank

big small large gigantic huge massive little thin
skinny
fat
tall
long short wide narrow

bendy flappy
flexible stretchy wrinkly
smooth
furry leathery
hard soft

Name:

Elephants

Match the adjectives to the body parts they describe.

flat

short

heavy

skin

tail

ears

trunk

legs

feet

large

wrinkly

strong

Use adjectives to describe an elephant.