

Literacy Sample 5.2

- 1 The spelling mistake in the sentence has been circled.
Choose the word that shows the correct spelling.

Last week my father drov his car to the city.

drived

drove droov

droev

- 2 The sentence has one word which is spelt incorrectly.
Enter the correct spelling of the word in the box.

My mutha is a doctor.

- 3 Which sentence is punctuated correctly?
- How many legs does a spider have.
 - How many legs does a spider have!
 - How many legs does a spider have?
 - How many legs does a spider have.

- 4 Enter the correct spelling of the circled word in the box.

The boy cryd after dropping his ice cream.

- 5 Read the text. Then answer the next two questions.

Camels are tough animals that are able to live in the harsh, hot climate of the desert. This is because over time they have developed special physical features which help them to survive.

Which word can be used to replace 'are able to'?

from

went can then

- 6 Which word can replace 'harsh' in the text.

easy

difficult

cool

mild

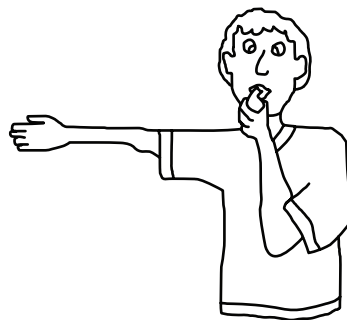

7 Dinosaurs

Long ago dinosaurs lived on the earth. They were very big. Some had long necks and tails. Some had sharp teeth and claws. Some ate plants. Some hunted other animals.

One of the words in the text is spelt incorrectly. Enter the correct spelling of the word in the box.

8 Choose the correct word for the sentence.

The referee his whistle.

blowing

blew

blowed

blow's

- 9 The spelling mistake in the sentence has been circled.
Enter the correct spelling in the box.

Jeffrey thru the ball to his dog.

- 10 Choose the sentence that best describes what's happening in the picture.

- Maha spilt water on the floor.
- Maha spilt water on her shirt.
- Maha spilt water over her work.
- Maha spilt water on a chair.

----- END -----