

Homonyms, Homophones, Homographs

Name: _____

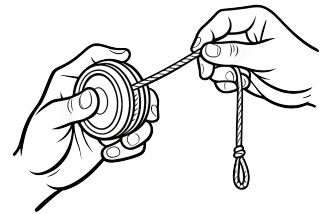

Homophones have different meanings. They have the same pronunciation but often have different spelling. Edit the following sentences. Circle the mistake and write correction.

1. The stars were especially bright on the clear summer knight. _____
2. Only won contestant managed to solve the final challenge. _____
3. I put the beautiful flour arrangement on the table. _____
4. Their going to the zoo tomorrow. _____
5. The rabbit darted into a whole beneath the old tree. _____
6. We stopped for a short brake on our hike. _____
7. Jack ate the last peace of chocolate cake. _____
8. The injured bird had a damaged tale. _____
9. During reading groups, each student took turns reading allowed. _____
10. We couldn't decide weather to visit the museum or the aquarium. _____

Homographs have different meanings. They have the same spelling but may be pronounced differently. Write the missing homograph and circle its meaning in the sentence.

1. The strong ____ blew the leaves away. (moving air / to twist or turn)
2. I _____ to that unfair rule. (a thing / to disagree)
3. Wait a _____ and I'll be ready. (60 seconds / very small)
4. Old paint sometimes contain _____. (to guide / a metal)
5. We couldn't wait to give Dad his birthday _____! (a gift / to show)
6. I found a _____ insect sitting on a leaf. (60 seconds / very small)
7. I will ____ the string around the yoyo. (moving air / to twist or turn)
8. Tomorrow, I will _____ my project to the class. (a gift / to show)
9. The teacher will ____ the class to the library. (to guide / a metal)
10. The children found a mysterious _____ in the garden shed. (a thing / to disagree)

Homonyms sound the same and look the same but have different meanings. Write the different meanings of the following words.

train

1. _____
2. _____

date

1. _____
2. _____

fair

1. _____
2. _____