

Name: _____

Theme Based Study Sheet

Flowers

Here are some amazing flower facts.

There are over 15,000 species of roses.

Titan arums are also called corpse flowers because they smell of rotting flesh.

The world's largest flower is the Rafflesia Arnoldii and can weigh up to 10 kg.

The cereus flower only blooms at night.

Broccoli is a flower as well as a vegetable.

How many more interesting flower facts can you find?

Rhyming words

Write six words that rhyme with "rose".

Poetry

Write a short humorous poem using some of your "rose" rhyming words.

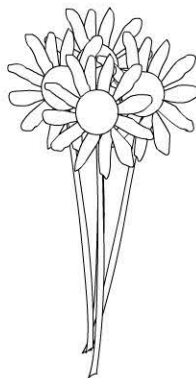

Flower survey

Ask your friends and family:

- what is their favorite flower color?
- what is their favorite flower?

What color was most popular?

What flower was most popular?

Number Crunchers

Below are the prices of flowers used in arrangements in a local florist.

Red roses $1.45 each Lilies $1.85 each

White roses $1.65 each Irises $1.35 each

Tulips $2.20 each

Greenery $2.20 (used in each arrangement)

What is the cost of each arrangement?

(Note that greenery is used in every arrangement)

1. 7 white roses, 7 red roses

2. 5 lilies, 3 irises

3. 3 white roses, 3 red roses, 5 irises

4. 7 tulips, 5 lilies, 5 irises

What is the total cost of the four arrangements?

Floral design

Draw some of your favorite flowers.

Combine these drawings into an interesting floral pattern.

Use this pattern for a T-shirt design.

Research - pollen and nectar

How do bees and butterflies help flowers?

How do flowers help bees and butterflies?

Use this information in a report about the relationship between insects and flowers.

For more fun and revision you can play games online using Studyladder's website.