Stegosaurus facts

The stegosaurus was a large plant-eating dinosaur. They lived about 150 million years ago.

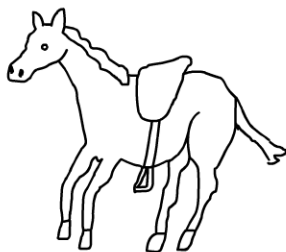

The word stegosaurus means 'roofed lizard'. The man who named it thought the big bony plates on its back looked like roof tiles. The stegosaurus grew to 9 meters in length and 4 meters in height. The bony plates can be over a meter high. Scientists are not sure whether they were for defense or for controlling temperature. The stegosaurus didn't have many teeth. It had a toothless beak at the front of its mouth. The brain of a stegosaurus was very small compared to its body. It was about the size of a table tennis ball. Do you know any more facts about the stegosaurus?

Herbivores

The stegosaurus was a herbivore. It only ate plants. Scientists believe it ate plants such as mosses, ferns, conifers and fruits. However, the stegosaurus didn't eat grass because there was no grass when they lived.

Do you know any other dinosaurs that were herbivores?

What are some animals alive today that are herbivores.

Armour like skin

The stegosaurus had big bony plates. What animals today have skin like armor, or hard protective shells?

Adverbs

Adverbs are words that add information to a verb.

Choose the best adverb to use in each sentence.
