

'Energy' words

greenhouse
 carbon dioxide
 climate
 atmosphere methane thermal fossil fuels
 average temperature

True or false?

Fossil fuels were formed in the past from the remains of living organisms. _____

Plastic is a fossil fuel. _____ Coal is a fossil fuel. _____

Methane is a gas that has no smell. _____

Carbon dioxide is a gas that is produced when people and animals breathe out. _____

Carbon dioxide is used by plants for energy. _____

Word Meanings.

The layer of air surrounding the Earth. _____

The measure of how cold or hot something is: _____

Relating to heat. _____

Circle the non-rhyming words.

green - clean mean man bean been glean keen lean cane queen

house - mouse haste nouse nice rouse hans spouse hound

climb - chime cling crime none dime dune grime mime prime atmosphere - rear her shear steel steer tear tale appear