Information Report

Purpose:

To provide factual information about an object, person, animal, place or event.

Structure:

1) Classification:

A general statement of classification to introduce the subject of the report.

2) Description:

Detailed description, organised according to category.

3) Concluding Statement:

A summary of the information provided.