

Suffix “-or” for job titles

The suffix “or” can be added to a word to create an adjective that describes a person according to their activity or employment.

Add the suffix “or” then write the words :

- |                  |       |                 |       |
|------------------|-------|-----------------|-------|
| (1) act ___      | _____ | 6) govern ___   | _____ |
| (2) doct ___     | _____ | (7) solicit ___ | _____ |
| (3) sculpt ___   | _____ | (8) tail ___    | _____ |
| (4) auth ___     | _____ | (9) survey ___  | _____ |
| (5) supervis ___ | _____ | (10) direct ___ | _____ |

Write the job titles in alphabetical order and state the number of syllables :

- |          |     |          |     |           |     |
|----------|-----|----------|-----|-----------|-----|
| 1) _____ | ( ) | 5) _____ | ( ) | 9) _____  | ( ) |
| 2) _____ | ( ) | 6) _____ | ( ) | 10) _____ | ( ) |
| 3) _____ | ( ) | 7) _____ | ( ) |           |     |
| 4) _____ | ( ) | 8) _____ | ( ) |           |     |

Match the job titles to their correct job descriptions :

- ( ) ... one who leads a company of people.
- ( ) ... one who writes books, articles or reports.
- ( ) ... one who measures and maps the land.
- ( ) ... one who gives legal advice.
- ( ) ... one who makes, or repairs clothing, especially suits.
- ( ) ... one who manages people who work in a team.
- ( ) ... one who creates 3D statues.
- ( ) ... one who is appointed to direct or lead.
- ( ) ... one who assists the sick with medical treatment.
- ( ) ... one who performs in the theatre or on a movie set.

(1)	actor
(2)	_____
(3)	_____
(4)	_____
(5)	_____
(6)	_____
(7)	_____
(8)	_____
(9)	_____
(10)	_____