

Features of Spiders

Look at spider features. You can observe a real spider safely, in a see-through container or you can look at photographs of spiders. Remember to safely return spiders to their natural environment when your observation is finished. (Let an adult help with spider collection and release as spiders can bite!)

Legs

Does the spider have legs? _____

How many? _____

Are they hairy? _____

Do the legs have joints? _____

How many parts to each leg? _____

Describe the spider's legs.

Body Parts

How many body parts? _____

Which part is the biggest? _____

What colour is the body? _____

Does the body have any markings?

Describe the spider's body.

Eyes

Does the spider have eyes? _____

How many? _____

What colour? _____

Are they the same size? _____

Describe the spider's eyes.